Dear James

MASTERCLASS: MONDAY 4th DECEMBER 5:30pm for 6:00pm start
CHRIS GORMAN SERIAL ENTREPRENEUR

Following on from the success of our first Masterclass of this academic session, led by Frank Dick, I have pleasure in inviting you to our Winter Masterclass. I am delighted to advise that this Masterclass is to be led by Chris Gorman. This event will continue with the theme of "motivating in challenging times" and Chris will draw upon experience from his highly successful entrepreneurial endeavours.

We value our links with your organisation and as a result, I would like to extend this invitation to you and your senior colleagues. A core part of our vision for the Business School is that we further strengthen our engagement with external organisations and our Masterclass series is one way of achieving this.

This Masterclass is being held on Monday 4th December at our city-centre campus on Cowcaddens Road, Glasgow and will follow the schedule as follows:

- 5:30pm to 6:00pm Registration, tea/coffee, networking
- 6:00pm to 6:10pm Welcome
- 6:10pm to 7:40pm Masterclass by Chris Gorman followed by Question and Answer session
- 7:40pm to 8:30pm Buffet, wine, and networking opportunity

We will be delighted if you and/or your colleagues are able to attend. Please reply by telephone on: 0141 331 3117 or by e-mail to: cbs@gcal.ac.uk. We will then send you confirmation of your place being reserved and venue details. If you have already notified us of your intention to attend, then many thanks.

The theme for all Masterclasses this year is "Motivating in challenging times" and the next two speakers will also be talking on this topic, from their own perspective:

- Caroline Casey – Monday 19th February
- Sir Ranulph Fiennes Bt OBE - Monday 4th June

I look forward to meeting you on 4th December.

Yours sincerely

It is interesting to note how Caledonian University rose from relatively humble beginnings to become an Institution that had a significant presence in Glasgow and beyond. The Caledonian Business School, in particular managed to project itself into the business community by a clever combination of raising its profile academically and inviting broad swathes from a wide business community to Masterclasses such as this! The Masterclass I liked best was by Jackie Stewart.
 Glasgow + Strathclyde Universities seemed distant and obscure by comparison.

Chris Gorman OBE

A serial entrepreneur, Chris Gorman has headed several highly successful ventures in technology and retail businesses. A founder shareholder in UK mobile phone retailer DX Communications, Chris then went on to create the internet services company, Reality Group.

Having experienced the tougher end of business with the widely publicised Gadget Shop and Birthdays retail challenges in 2004/5, Chris has emerged stronger than ever and current business interests include a number of mobile and internet enterprises as well as Quintessentially, Datastore, Get Fit Wellness, MobMart, The Light Agency and purple-lounge.com.

Highly regarded, Chris has received many business awards for his entrepreneurialism over the years including Ernst & Young Scottish Entrepreneur of the Year, UK E-Business Entrepreneur, Young Business Leader of the Year, Glenfiddich Spirit of Scotland in Business, and the laudable SBAAT Businessman of the Year Award.

In June 2005 Chris was delighted to receive an OBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours list for services to business.

Chris is a regular speaker at business events; he has featured in several business related TV shows; he lectures in schools and universities and has been awarded an honorary professorship in business at Paisley University. He is Vice Chairman of the Entrepreneurial Exchange and Governor of the Royal Scottish Academy for Music and Drama.
