Sirs,

As you are hopefully aware, the ICE Glasgow & west of Scotland Papers Competition concludes on the 24 April.

I have the pleasure of trying to organise it and drum up interest, the later proving as difficult as usual I'm told.

Iain McAlister has kindly offered your names as judges for the competition and I now ask formally for your support.

Should you accept the challenge, albeit small, you would be required to mark the written submissions (usually only 3-6 I'm) and then judge the presentations of the finalists on the night of 24 April.

I thank you in anticipation of your time and effort, and look forward to hearing favourably from you.

Due to holiday over the next 2 weeks could you please reply to jane_metcalf@urscorp.com

Regards,

Adrian Lofty
