Dear Mr McCafferty

ANNUAL INVITATION LECTURE – TUESDAY 19TH MARCH 2002

The above lecture will be given by The Honourable Lord Reed in the Royal Society, 22/24 George Street, Edinburgh starting at 5.30pm. The topic of the lecture will be "Human Rights and the Building Industry". The address will occupy around an hour and there will be an opportunity to ask questions afterwards. There will be a finger buffet after the conclusion of the lecture.

Lord Reed was appointed by the Queen as an additional Senator of the College of Justice on 24th September 1998 and is one of the youngest judges ever appointed. He is the General Editor of "A Practical Guide to Human Rights Law in Scotland" (recently published by Greens/Sweet & Maxwell). Lord Reed has taken a particular interest in this new and expanding area of the law and is thus well placed to provide a first class insight into it.

On behalf of the Committee, I would like to extend a personal invitation to you to attend the above lecture and trust that you are able to accept.

If you are able to accept the invitation personally please complete and return the enclosed acceptance slip as soon as possible and I will arrange to send you an admission card confirming that a place has been reserved for you.

Would you please note that as numbers are limited and as it is anticipated that there will be a high demand, places will be allocated in order of response.

Yours sincerely

JAMES M ARNOTT
SECRETARY
